Africa

As the plains of east Africa fade to yellow, the horizon blurs with the bodies of over one million wildebeest, zebra, eland, gazelle, all moving on a migratory path and relentlessly tracked by Africa's great predators. The migration begins on the southern Serengeti plains in Tanzania, moving north towards the Masai Mara plains, and is one of the most awe-inspiring sights on Earth. Soon, creatures of all types have arrived along the Mara River, whose crocodile infested waters await them. If you have ever dreamed of seeing African wildlife, Kenya is the place to do it. There are zebra, giraffe, warthog and monkeys often in close proximity to lion, leopard, cheetah and hyena.

Costa Rica

Tropical foliage, striking birds, exotic animals and thermal hot springs are just a few of the delights you will find on this journey! The flora and fauna are absolutely stunning. You'll be surrounded by lush vegetation and see hundreds of species of orchids, bromeliads, ferns, heliconias and many other plants. The biological diversity includes animals too. Monkeys, sloths, kinkajous, opossums, and a wide variety of birds inhabit these forested areas. If you ever wanted to explore the rainforest than this is the perfect safari for you!
