

Why have a tame presenter when you can have a WILDLY EXCITING one?

Enthrall your attendees, members, students, or staff with new and different programming. Diana L. Guerrero's dynamic personality and passionate presentations captivate her audiences. This enthusiastic speaker has been in front of crowds for most of her career and appearances can be tailored to your specific needs and environment.

Whether you need a local, regional, or national presentation, Guerrero will provide a fun and informative session. She has conducted programs throughout the United States for companies and associations of different dimensions and character. Audiences leave energized, motivated, and empowered by her enthusiasm and innovative concepts.

Topics: Inspiration, creativity, behavior modification, and the animal world.

Consultant: For businesses, creative groups, animal facilities, and pet agencies.

Author: What Animals Can Teach Us about Spirituality (SkyLight Paths); Resources for Crisis Management (American Association of Zoo Keepers); Turning Disaster into Opportunity (Professional Programs).

Interviews: Featured in television, radio, magazines, and newspapers around the world.

Background: Since 1978 this adventurous and innovative pioneer has worked around the world with all varieties of wild and domestic creatures. She has also successfully trained and managed bipedal primates (humans) in a variety of settings. Guerrero now devotes her time to writing, speaking, and consulting.

“Your presentation was very upbeat and informative and everyone thoroughly enjoyed what you had to share.”

KATHY LUEDER
THE LEARNING ANNEX

To encourage, enlighten, and inspire your staff, members, or audiences
CALL TODAY!

Reserve your date today!

(800) 818-7387
www.arkanimals.com

Reserve your
date today!

zooit@arkanimals.com • PO Box 1989 PMB 215 • Big Bear Lake, California • 92315 USA

Diana L. Guerrero
Author * Speaker * Consultant